

Cheveley CE Primary School

Policies Statement

Our mission at Cheveley CE Primary School, whether it feels easy or difficult, it is made possible only through our unwavering belief that 'I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me'. Philippians 4:13

The policies of Cheveley CE Primary School are designed to reflect our values to enable stakeholders to act with courage and hope; to reflect the school's faithfulness towards children, parents and employees; to enable the broad school community to take joy in their engagement with us, and the implementation of our policies is underpinned by love. 1 Corinthians 13 'love is patient and kind and rejoices in the truth'.

Hope

Our children facing policies are intended to promote hope for good outcomes and positive futures.

Our staff facing policies are intended to promote hope in security and strategic aspirations.

Our parent facing policies are intended to support parents in their desire for their children to live the best possible lives they can.

Faithfulness

Our children facing policies are intended to teach about our unwavering belief in them as intrinsically valuable human beings.

Our staff facing policies are intended to promote trust in them to carry out their professional duties to the highest level.

Our parent facing policies reflect the mutual trust which enables school and parents to work together for the benefit of the children.

Courage

Our children facing policies are intended to enable all children to develop resilience, self-confidence and perseverance.

Our staff facing policies are intended to give the tools and the support to make positive strategic and operational decisions.

Our parent facing policies are intended to give a framework for mutually supportive decision-making for the education and welfare of children.

Joy

Our children facing policies are intended to promote a deep enjoyment of life-long and life-enhancing learning.

Our staff facing policies are intended to enable enjoyment in undertaking professional duties and in making a difference.

Our parent-facing policies are intended to enhance opportunities for shared rejoicing in children's achievements.

Love

All our policies are intended to make the school environment an exciting place for learning and growth in both wisdom and understanding. Luke 2 52 'and Jesus increased in wisdom and understanding and in divine and human favour'.

We aim to model our interactions with all stakeholders on the deep and unending love of God. This enables us to implement policies faithfully and courageously; to increase and highlight the opportunities for hope for the present and the future, and to rejoice in the life God has provided in all its fullness.
